VIRTUAL

A Talk on Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol

Monday Dec. 16th

7:00pm

CLICK TO REGISTER

This story of a misanthrope transformed by the visions of his past, present and future found a place in the hearts of both poor and rich.

The novella not only celebrates the spirit of the Christmas season but its message of love, forgiveness and redemption is timeless and universal.

Enjoy a lecture on the plot, characters and theme of the book, as well as on Dickens' mastery over the art of story telling.

Presenter: Vandana Walia has a master's degree in English and taught for thirty years in India before moving to the United States. She teaches literature at Rutgers' Osher Life Learning Institute and is a frequent presenter at BTL's Leisure Learning.
